

Externalities: a win-win situation in cohesion policy

15:30

Welcome Speech

Speakers

Lambert van NISTELROOIJ, EPP Group Spokesman in the Regional Development Committee of the European Parliament (EP)

15:45

The spillovers resulting from cohesion policy and the internal market

Speakers

Elżbieta Bieńkowska, European Commissioner for Internal Market, Industry, Entrepreneurship and SMEs

15:55

Win-Win situation of cohesion policy

Speakers

Emil Boc, Former Prime Minister of Romania, Mayor of Cluj-Napoca

16:15

European Commission Position on the externalities

Evaluation within the Directorate-General for Regional and Urban Policy, European Commission

Speakers

Lewis Dijkstra, Head of the Economic Analysis Sector

16:35

How do 15 EU Member States benefit from cohesion policy?

Speakers

David Škorňa, Director of the Partnership Agreement, Evaluation and Strategy Department, Ministry of Regional Development (Czech Republic)

17:00

Linkage between EU cohesion and industrial policies: how to maximise their impact in the spatial spillover context?

Speakers

Peter Wostner, Government Office for Development and European Cohesion Policy, Smart Specialisation Division (Slovenia)

17:25

Do economic models tell us anything useful about cohesion policy impacts?

Speakers

John Bradley, Economic Modelling and Development Systems (EMDS)

17:50

Questions & Answers

18:20

Conclusions

Speakers

Franc BOGOVIČ, Member of the Regional Development Committee of the EP