About the EPP Group

The EPP Group is the largest and oldest group in the European Parliament. As a centre-right group, the Group is committed to creating a stronger Europe, built on its people and working towards the benefit of all Europeans. It is aiming to reach a more ambitious and a more self-assured Europe where everyone has an equal opportunity to succeed. In its day-to-day business, the Group and its Members can rely on the multinational secretariat providing high quality political, administrative and technical support.

Department

With a view to promoting the dissemination of knowledge on European integration and to contributing to young Europeans' education and professional training, the EPP Group offers traineeships in its Secretariat.

This paid traineeship is an opportunity to gain a unique experience in the Parliamentary Work Directorate - Agriculture and Rural Development parliamentary committee.

Our traineeships aim to provide university graduates or student with experience of working in a political organization and practical knowledge of the activities of the EPP Group and of the European Parliament in particular linked to the EU agriculture and rural development policies. In addition, the traineeship offers an excellent opportunity to gain experience in an international, multi-lingual and multi-cultural environment.

Job description

Trainee will participate in, contribute and follow up of the legislative work of the Agriculture and Rural Development parliamentary committee.

The main tasks are the following:

- attending and helping with organization of meetings and various events;
- drafting notes, reports and other documents linked to the agriculture and rural development policies of the EU;
- translating and/or proofreading documents;
- conducting research, etc.;
- contributing to projects.

All the above tasks and projects are carried out under the supervision of the trainee's supervisor.

Job requirements

The applicants for traineeships must:

- be a national of a Member State of the European Union or of an associated or candidate country;
- have a very good knowledge of two official EU languages, of which one should be one of the EU working languages i.e. English, French or German (at least at B2 level);
- not have been granted a paid traineeship in the EU Institutions or not have already been in gainful employment after the completion of their studies;
- candidates must have a university degree, have completed three years of study (at least six semesters) at a university or an equivalent institute of higher education related to agriculture, rural development or other relevant fields.

Compensation & benefits

- monthly allowance of 1,400 EUR to cover living costs in Brussels;
- reimbursement of mission costs (travel and accommodation) to attend one plenary session of the European Parliament in Strasbourg.
- EPP Group has taken on trainee's behalf a compulsory, primary sickness and accident insurance.
